ADDITIONAL INFO

SELECTING A CAMP

A summer spent at a day, sleepaway or travel camp should be a productive living and learning experience. It can be fun, healthy and provide an opportunity to develop new skills and friendships. Camp experience may have a great impact on a child's life, so it is important for parents and caregivers to make a careful decision in choosing a camp. Not every camp meets the needs and abilities of every child. Since you are the consumer, you have a right to ask any questions you wish so that you can better understand the camp program.

Some of the questions/suggestions you may want to consider are listed below:

YOU AND YOUR CHILD

- What do you want out of your child's camp experience?
- What does your child want out of his/her camp experience? A good time? New friends? New skills?
- Is your child ready for a day camp?
- Is your child ready for a sleep away camp?
- Has your child spent time away from home overnight at a friends or relatives home?

DIRECTOR AND STAFF

- Who is the director? What are his/her qualifications?
- What are the qualifications of the staff members? How are they supervised?
- What is the professional staff-to-camper ratios?
- Who are the medical staff?
- What kind of screening process is used to select staff?

CAMP PROGRAM

- What is a typical day like? What are the activities? Do children have a choice of activities?
- Is one-to-one instruction provided for some activities?
- How does the program meet individual needs and differences?
- How are behavior problems handled?
- What procedures exists for medical emergencies?
- What is the overall philosophy of the camp?

OTHER THINGS TO CONSIDER

- What is a typical menu? Who prepares the food?
- What medical services are available at the camp?

- Are there procedures for the administration of medication?
- What procedures are in place for medical emergencies?
- Is there a visitors' day for parents? Are parents able to arrange a visit other than on visitors' day? Are parents able to call?
- How is information concerning children's progress shared with parents and/or schools after the camp season?
- What options does the camp offer pertaining to payment (scholarship, sliding scale, payment plans)?

PAYING FOR CAMP

- Use family resources.
- Use child's SSI funds.
- Use special needs trust funds.
- LISS Program 1-877-282-8202
- The Arc Baltimore 410-296-2272 (Respite Department)
- Kinetic Connections, KKI – Toni Shumate – 443-923-9137
funds for campers with Cerebral Palsy
- Talk to the camp director about scholarship possibilities
- Service Coordination

*The money from these programs are limited. Call immediately!

THERAPEUTIC SWIMMING POOLS

BALTIMORE CITY RECREATION AND PARKS

- Cherry Hill Aquatics Center, 2600 Giles Rd. Baltimore, MD 21225
- Chick Webb Aquatics Center, 623 N. Eden St. Baltimore, MD 21205
