

Exciting Training Opportunity

With a group beginning on September 11, 2018, The Arc Baltimore is excited to offer the Circle of Security Program to interested parents. While the Circle of Security model is geared toward responding to the attachment needs of younger children, all parents are encouraged to attend this training. Through interactive discussions we will address attachment throughout the lifespan.

Click on the video link below to learn more about the program and how it might help you increase your awareness of the needs of children in your care:

The program will consist of 9 consecutive weekly group meetings on Tuesdays from 11 am – 1 pm from September 11th through November 6th at our 7215 York Road (21212) location.

A tasty lunch and parent training certificates will be provided each session as well as a final certificate of program completion. We have chosen the time so that parents available during the day can attend while their children are at school. Attendees will be provided a small childcare/transportation stipend for each group attended.

We recognize that parents with daytime jobs will not be able to attend this session. If you would be interested in a future evening group, please let us know. We will make sure to add your name to a list for future outreach.

The Arc Baltimore received a small grant to provide the Circle of Security training so there is no charge to attend. If interested, please contact Bridget Roth at (broth@thearcbaltimore.org) or 410-296-2272 x5317.
